Q.C.F.S.C. Test Policies

1. Test skater must be a member of the United States Figure Skating.
2. Test application must be filled in completely and fees must accompany application.
3. Return application and fees to your coach at least 14 days prior to test date.
4. Thirty (30) days notice to test chairman is required for any Junior, Senior or Gold test.
5. Test fees are non-refundable after submittal. However, credit may be given for illness or serious circumstances beyond skater's control. Notice to test chairman and statement of reason are required as soon as possible. Credit must be used within the next two (2) subsequent test sessions. Final credit approval will be made by the test committee. Test Application must be re-submitted for credit use.
6. In addition to Hospitality fee you may be asked to bring a food item to complete judge's meal. Some infrequent circumstances may require a skater be charged an additional fee due to increased expenses for prime time ice, judges' transportation, or lodging, etc.
7. Late applications accepted on conditional basis - additional $10 late fee will apply.
8. Skater must be in the rink at least thirty minutes before their scheduled warm-up time.
9. Non-member tests accepted on conditional basis. Permission letter from home club must accompany this application. Skater's coach must be certified by U.S.F.S. (Certification through N.C.S.I.)
10. Non-member Fees:
  - $25.00 for first test - Pre-Pre through Novice (MIF and FS); Pre-Pre through Pre-Gold (Dance)
  - $5 each additional test

  - $30.00 for each test - Junior, Senior or Gold (MIF, FS, or Dance)
  - $5 each additional lower-level test
